The Poblet de Nadal

The Poblet de Nadal Christmas village returns with all its power and magic. More shows, more activities and more entertainment that will make your Christmas holidays very special.

26 November, inauguration

6 p.m

Christmas lights switch-on ceremony in Andorra la Vella and opening show Abyss by the Compagnie Remue Ménage, down the Av. Meritxell.

7 p.m.:

Inauguration of the Christmas market in the Plaça del Poble.

8 p.m.:

Triple castle of fireworks. The fireworks display will illuminate the parish from different points so that everyone can enjoy them.

The Christmas Market

Located in the Plaça del Poble, the market is a great place to do your Christmas shopping; buy decorations, crafts and gifts and enjoy activities for the whole family. An even bigger space this year that you can access from the Plaça del Poble or from the Estació Central located on Av. Meritxell, 10.

The Neret after shopping area

A new feature of this year's edition of the Christmas market is this ideal place to take a pause and order a good signature sandwich, some nachos, or an Argentine empanada while enjoying some live music from the best bands and DJs of the country.

In total, around forty performances

The Neret after shopping area closes from 2 to 5 p.m.

The Menairons workshops

More than 40 small workshops aimed at children between 4 and 7 years old (stories, theatre, music, dancing, origami, recycling) to enjoy during the weekends.

Saturdays and Sundays at noon and in the afternoon.

Check out the programmes at andorralavella.ad/christmas

Christmas Park

In the centre of the shopping area the children will find a spectacular toboggan run on synthetic ice, 30 metres long, and a superb skating rink to enjoy good times with the family. A real adventure!
